specific language is. There is language that deals with...that does make specific acts criminal and establishes mechanisms for enforcing that law.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But they don't talk about organized crime and making sure that the churches don't get taken over by it?

SENATOR WILL: Not specifically to my recollection.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Or the cities or the counties?

SENATOR WILL: Again, not specifically to my recollection.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: This, see, you have to understand that people unlike yourself are insulted by much of what you say and do, and you say you intend no insult, but if I did the exact same thing to you, you would be highly insulted. This bill is offensive. I have other things than what Senator Hohenstein is trying to remove that I'm going to try to remove from this bill. The bill doesn't even need to pass, but there is some things that I think need to be excised.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Abboud. Senator Schellpeper.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Mr. Speaker, I'll move we adjourn until one-thirty, recess until one-thirty.

SPEAKER BAACK: Do you have items for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Senator Withem has amendments to be printed, Mr. President, to LB 839; Senator Coordsen to LB 447; Senator Lindsay to LB 782. A new resolution by Senator Bernard-Stevens. The resolution will be laid over, LR 265. Enrollment and Review reports LB 717 to Select File. Enrollment and Review reports LB 330, LB 632, LB 804, LB 804A, all as correctly engrossed. That's all that I have, Mr. President. (See pages 2583-88 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. You've heard the motion to recess. All those in favor say aye. Opposed no. We are recessed until one-thirty.
